Election Day: Cast your ballot at 17 libraries or seven other drop sites

The May 19, 2009 Special Election is here. Ballots are due by 8:00 p.m. today, Tue. May 19. Postmarks do not count.

The Multnomah County Elections division will begin releasing unofficial results at 8:00 p.m. at its office and on its website at www.mcelections.org. Unofficial election results will be updated on the website throughout Election Night as additional ballots are counted. Each report on the website will list a report number and the approximate time of the next report.

Voters are encouraged to use official ballot drop sites throughout Multnomah County.

Multnomah County has seven 24-hour ballot drop sites and ballot drop-off boxes in all 17 Multnomah County Libraries. Ballot drop boxes are official and secure places for voters to deposit ballots for receipt at the Multnomah County Elections Division. Boxes will be emptied regularly and promptly at 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.

Voters may deposit ballots at the Multnomah County Elections Office, at 1040 SE Morrison St. An Official Drop box is located on SE 11th and on SE Belmont St. and a walk-up drop slot is available on SE Morrison St. Voters also have the option to take advantage of secure ballot drop-off locations throughout the county to minimize the need for travel and to reduce potential related traffic congestion.

The ballot drop sites are listed online at http://www.mcelections.org/election_information/drop_sites.shtml and as follows:
